Graph of deliverables for assigned semester project development license / dissertation paper

Week / Content of deliverables	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14
Introduction+ Work plan and the proposed approach to the subject
- Reasons for choosing the theme / importance for the study - Description of the objectives of the practical part / of the work - Work Plan / Proposal Contents
Presentation of the current state of research on the topic addressed + References
- Background importance of the subject supported by citations, Ex legislation / standards / conventions / regulations - Summary of the current state of research supported by relevant citations and references - Highlighting the necessity of this research, results in the literature. research motivation - Introduction of research question or practical section of the work
Practical or applicable section of the project
- Drafting research question and description of the methodology for collection / analysis of data. Research methodology. - The originality of the approach / solution / analysis. Relevance solution / method to answer the research question. - Presentation and analysis of data (graphs, tables, figures, mathematical model) - Highlighting results.
Conclusion + The completion work
- Relevance of findings and correlation with practice or section of the work, with research results - Specifying own contribution
Meeting devoted to the preparation of printing the paper to design the presentation.
- Coordination and Verification Word format of the paper for printing - Coordination and checking the way of preparation of presentation
Uploading the paperwork on e-campus: http://campus.cmu-edu.eu/
At least 30 days before the session begins will be loaded following documents: 1. whole paper (one document) and Chapter 2. What is your personal contribution.														