

Accommodation during the academic year,
after the Annual Accommodations Session

Accommodation of students on vacant places

Accommodation on vacant places is carried out in compliance with the criteria established in the Regulation on the organization and operation of the Student Accommodation Complex. Priority is given to the students who fit the performance, social, medical or volunteering criteria and students enrolled in the tax-free education in relation to students enrolled in the tax education form.

The accommodation request is submitted and registered at the university – Rectors' Office or sent to the e-mail address camine@cmu-edu.eu.

If two or more accommodation requests meet the same accommodation criteria, the accommodation will be carried out in the order in which the accommodation requests were submitted (according to the registration number of the request).

Accommodation for students during the summer vacation

Accommodation is given in the Far 3 Student Dormitory, within the limits of places approved by The Administrative Council of UMC

Accommodation during the summer vacation is given to the:

- students who carry out academic activities and/or research activities during the summer vacation within university projects;
- employed students;
- foreign students from non-European countries;
- fourth-year foreign students who have not completed their studies, if there are places available and with the agreement of the UMC management;
- fourth-year foreign students who have completed their studies and are about to enroll in the admission session organized for the master's courses held within the university, if there are places available and with the agreement of the UMC management;
- students carrying out projects and other specific student activities in partnership with UMC;

- students/pupils and contractual staff from the units/institutions under the coordination/subordination of the Ministry of Education within the framework of inter-institutional collaborations,

The number of places, the fees and the rest of the accommodation conditions are decided by The Administrative Council of UMC.

If the number of requests exceeds the number of places allocated by The Administrative Council of UMC, the unsolved requests will be quickly analyzed by the university management and will be approved depending on the degree of occupancy of the dormitory, depending on the events taking place during the respective period, and depending on the planning of repair and maintenance work.

Students who carry out academic activities and/or research activities during the summer vacation within the university's projects submit an application to the Rectors Office, endorsed by a teaching staff involved in the project's activity.

Employed students submit an application for accommodation during the summer vacation, accompanied by the documents proving employment to the administrator of the Far 3 Student Dormitory at least 3 days before the start of the summer vacation/end of the internship period.

Foreign students submit a request for accommodation during the summer vacation to the administrator of the Far 3 Student Dormitory at least 3 days before the start of the summer vacation/end of the internship period.

By submitting the request for accommodation during the summer vacation, the applicants accept the living conditions generated by the renovation, repair, sanitation activities, as well as the rest of the activities approved by the UMC management.

Students staying during the academic year in the Student Accommodation Complex of UMC have priority for accommodation.

Students staying in the Far3 Student Dormitory during the academic year during the summer vacation will sign an addendum to the rental contract to extend the term of the contract. If the student did not live in the Far 3 Student Dormitory during the academic year, the student will sign a new rental contract.

Student accommodation during the autumn exam session

During the session after the summer vacation, students can be accommodated in the Far 3 Student Dormitory, in compliance with the specifications of the Regulation - based on a written request submitted to the Dormitory Reception - to the attention of the administrator of the Dormitory.

If the student has not lived in the Far 3 Student Dormitory in the current academic year, a Rental Agreement will be completed.
